

	ITALY. Milan, 3.2.2018. Rahel Sereke_Rachela at the photo session for the election fliers at "Studio Li" in Bovisa district.
	ITALY. Milan, 3.2.2018. Rahel Sereke_Rachela in the background during a break of the photo session for the election fliers at "Studio Li" in Bovisa district.
	ITALY. Milan, 3.2.2018. Rahel Sereke_Rachela at the photo session for the election fliers at "Studio Li" in Bovisa district.
	ITALY. Milan, 4.2.2018. Former President of the Chamber of Deputies, Laura Boldrini, at Franco Parenti Theatre, to present her candidacy for the leftwing political group "Liberi e Uguali" - Free and Equal - during the campaign for the elections of 4 March 2018. During her mandate, Boldrini has often been attacked on social networks and real life because of her role of women and immigrants' rights defender.

	ITALY. Milan, 4.2.2018. Former President of the Chamber of Deputies, Laura Boldrini, at Franco Parenti Theatre, after her speech to present her candidacy for the leftwing political group "Liberi e Uguali" - Free and Equal - during the campaign for the elections of 4 March 2018. During her mandate, Boldrini has often been attacked on social networks and real life because of her role of women and immigrants' rights defender.
	ITALY. Milan, 4.2.2018. Fixing the flags during "Liberi e Uguali" - Free and Equal - convention at Franco Parenti Theatre to present the candidates for the elections of 4 March 2018.
	ITALY. Milan, 4.2.2018. Franco Parenti Theatre. Rahel Sereke, known as Rachela, is about to deliver the speech of her candidacy for the leftwing political group "Liberi e Uguali" - Free and Equal - during the campaign for the elections of 4 March 2018.
	ITALY. Milan, 4.2.2018. Franco Parenti Theatre. Rahel Sereke, known as Rachela, delivering the speech of her candidacy for the leftwing political group "Liberi e Uguali" - Free and Equal - during the campaign for the elections of 4 March 2018.

ITALY. Milan, 4.2.2018. Franco Parenti Theatre. Rahel Sereke, known as Rachela, greeting former President of the Chamber of Deputies, Laura Boldrini, after the speech of her candidacy for the leftwing political group “Liberi e Uguali” - Free and Equal - during the campaign for the elections of 4 March 2018. During her mandate, Boldrini has often been attacked on social networks and real life because of her role of women and immigrants’ rights defender.

ITALY. Milan, 4.2.2018. Franco Parenti Theatre. Rahel Sereke, known as Rachela, greeting her supporters after the convention of the leftwing political group “Liberi e Uguali” - Free and Equal - during the campaign for the elections of 4 March 2018.

ITALY. Milan, 4.2.2018. Franco Parenti Theatre. At the end of the leftwing political group “Liberi e Uguali” - Free and Equal - convention, during the campaign for the elections of 4 March 2018.

ITALY. Milan, 6.2.2018. Circolo Meazza, Quarto Oggiaro district. The neighborhood was born in the 50s’ and it has always been home to immigrants, first from the South of Italy and then non-EU.

ITALY. Milan, 6.2.2018. Activists and supporters of the leftwing political group “Liberi e Uguali” - Free and Equal - at Circolo Meazza in Quarto Oggiaro district, during the campaign for the elections of 4 March 2018. The neighborhood was born in the 50s’ and it has always been home to immigrants, first from the South of Italy and then non-EU.

ITALY. Milan, 6.2.2018. Second from left: Rahel Sereke, known as Rachela, listening to a supporter and activist of the leftwing political group “Liberi e Uguali” - Free and Equal - at Circolo Meazza, Quarto Oggiaro district, during the campaign for the elections of 4 March 2018. The neighborhood was born in the 50s’ and it has always been home to immigrants, first from the South of Italy and then non-EU.

ITALY. Milan, 6.2.2018. Rahel Sereke, known as Rachela, speaking to local supporters and activists of the leftwing political group “Liberi e Uguali” - Free and Equal - at Circolo Meazza, Quarto Oggiaro district, during the campaign for the elections of 4 March 2018. The neighborhood was born in the 50s’ and it has always been home to immigrants, first from the South of Italy and then non-EU.

ITALY. Milan, 6.2.2018. Quarto Oggiaro. Manifesto of the post-fascist rightwing party “Fratelli d’Italia” - Brothers of Italy - during the campaign for the elections on 4 March 2018. Quarto Oggiaro district was born in the 50s’ and it has always been home to immigrants, first from the South of Italy and then non-EU.

ITALY. Milan, 10.2.2018. Porta Venezia.

ITALY. Milan, 10.2.2018. Porta Venezia. Rahel Sereke-Rachela at the starting point of the anti-fascist and anti-racism rally organized a week after the shootings of African immigrants by the 28-year-old Luca Traini, a man with right-wing sympathies and former candidate in local elections of the anti-immigrant party “Lega Nord” - Northern League-, in Macerata, a small town in Central Italy. Traini wanted to revenge the murder of the 18-year-old woman Pamela Mastropietro, whose main suspect was the 29-year-old Nigerian man Innocent Oseghale.

ITALY. Milan, 10.2.2018. Porta Venezia. People at the starting point of the anti-fascist and anti-racism rally organized a week after the shootings of African immigrants by the 28-year-old Luca Traini, a man with right-wing sympathies and former candidate in local elections of the anti-immigrant party “Lega Nord” - Northern League-, in Macerata, a small town in Central Italy. Traini wanted to revenge the murder of the 18-year-old woman Pamela Mastropietro, whose main suspect was the 29-year-old Nigerian man Innocent Oseghale.

ITALY. Milan, 10.2.2018. Porta Venezia. People at the starting point of the anti-fascist and anti-racism rally organized a week after the shootings of African immigrants by the 28-year-old Luca Traini, a man with right-wing sympathies and former candidate in local elections of the anti-immigrant party “Lega Nord” - Northern League-, in Macerata, a small town in Central Italy. Traini wanted to revenge the murder of the 18-year-old woman Pamela Mastropietro, whose main suspect was the 29-year-old Nigerian man Innocent Oseghale.

ITALY. Milan, 10.2.2018. Porta Venezia. People at the anti-fascist and anti-racism rally organized a week after the shootings of African immigrants by the 28-year-old Luca Traini, a man with right-wing sympathies and former candidate in local elections of the anti-immigrant party "Lega Nord" - Northern League-, in Macerata, a small town in Central Italy. Traini wanted to revenge the murder of the 18-year-old woman Pamela Mastropietro, whose main suspect was the 29-year-old Nigerian man Innocent Oseghale.

ITALY. Milan, 10.2.2018. People at the anti-fascist and anti-racism rally organized a week after the shootings of African immigrants by the 28-year-old Luca Traini, a man with right-wing sympathies and former candidate in local elections of the anti-immigrant party "Lega Nord" - Northern League-, in Macerata, a small town in Central Italy. Traini wanted to revenge the murder of the 18-year-old woman Pamela Mastropietro, whose main suspect was the 29-year-old Nigerian man Innocent Oseghale.

ITALY. Milan, 10.2.2018. People at the anti-fascist and anti-racism rally organized a week after the shootings of African immigrants by the 28-year-old Luca Traini, a man with right-wing sympathies and former candidate in local elections of the anti-immigrant party "Lega Nord" - Northern League-, in Macerata, a small town in Central Italy. Traini wanted to revenge the murder of the 18-year-old woman Pamela Mastropietro, whose main suspect was the 29-year-old Nigerian man Innocent Oseghale.

ITALY. Milan, 10.2.2018. Rahel Sereke, known as Rachela, at the anti-fascist and anti-racism rally organized a week after the shootings of African immigrants by the 28-year-old Luca Traini, a man with right-wing sympathies and former candidate in local elections of the anti-immigrant party "Lega Nord" - Northern League-, in Macerata, a small town in Central Italy. Traini wanted to revenge the murder of the 18-year-old woman Pamela Mastropietro, whose main suspect was the 29-year-old Nigerian man Innocent Oseghale.

ITALY. Milan, 10.2.2018. People at the anti-fascist and anti-racism rally organized a week after the shootings of African immigrants by the 28-year-old Luca Traini, a man with right-wing sympathies and former candidate in local elections of the anti-immigrant party "Lega Nord" - Northern League-, in Macerata, a small town in Central Italy. Traini wanted to revenge the murder of the 18-year-old woman Pamela Mastropietro, whose main suspect was the 29-year-old Nigerian man Innocent Oseghale.

ITALY. Milan, 10.2.2018. People, at the anti-fascist and anti-racism rally, stopping in Via Zuretti to remember Abdul William Guibre, a 19-year-old Italian boy from Burkina Faso who was killed, in 2008, by the owner of the local coffee bar, the 51-year-old Fausto Cristofoli, and his son Daniele, 31 years old, after, probably, stealing some sweets from their coffee bar.

ITALY. Milan, 10.2.2018. Via Sarmartini. People in front of the SPRAR - a center for refugees - the day of the anti-fascist and anti-racism rally organized a week after the shootings of African immigrants by the 28-year-old Luca Traini, a man with right-wing sympathies and former candidate in local elections of the anti-immigrant party "Lega Nord" - Northern League-, in Macerata, a small town in Central Italy. Traini wanted to revenge the murder of the 18-year-old woman Pamela Mastropietro, whose main suspect was the 29-year-old Nigerian man Innocent Oseghale.

ITALY. Milan, 10.2.2018. Via Sarmartini. People greeting refugees hosted at the SPRAR - a center for migrants. The demonstrators are attending the anti-fascist and anti-racism rally organized a week after the shootings of African immigrants by the 28-year-old Luca Traini, a man with right-wing sympathies and former candidate in local elections of the anti-immigrant party "Lega Nord" - Northern League-, in Macerata, a small town in Central Italy. Traini wanted to revenge the murder of the 18-year-old woman Pamela Mastropietro, whose main suspect was the 29-year-old Nigerian man Innocent Oseghale.

ITALY. Milan, 10.2.2018. People at the anti-fascist and anti-racism rally organized a week after the shootings of African immigrants by the 28-year-old Luca Traini, a man with right-wing sympathies and former candidate in local elections of the anti-immigrant party "Lega Nord" - Northern League-, in Macerata, a small town in Central Italy. Traini wanted to revenge the murder of the 18-year-old woman Pamela Mastropietro, whose main suspect was the 29-year-old Nigerian man Innocent Oseghale.

ITALY. Milan, 10.2.2018. Police following demonstrators during the anti-fascist and anti-racism rally organized a week after the shootings of African immigrants by the 28-year-old Luca Traini, a man with right-wing sympathies and former candidate in local elections of the anti-immigrant party "Lega Nord" - Northern League-, in Macerata, a small town in Central Italy. Traini wanted to revenge the murder of the 18-year-old woman Pamela Mastropietro, whose main suspect was the 29-year-old Nigerian man Innocent Oseghale.

ITALY. Milan, 10.2.2018. Teenagers playing basketball near Central Railway Station. In the background, people at the anti-fascist and anti-racism rally organized a week after the shootings of African immigrants by the 28-year-old Luca Traini, a man with right-wing sympathies and former candidate in local elections of the anti-immigrant party "Lega Nord" - Northern League-, in Macerata, a small town in Central Italy. Traini wanted to revenge the murder of the 18-year-old woman Pamela Mastropietro, whose main suspect was the 29-year-old Nigerian man Innocent Oseghale.

ITALY. Milan, 10.2.2018. People at the anti-fascist and anti-racism rally organized a week after the shootings of African immigrants by the 28-year-old Luca Traini, a man with right-wing sympathies and former candidate in local elections of the anti-immigrant party "Lega Nord" - Northern League-, in Macerata, a small town in Central Italy. Traini wanted to revenge the murder of the 18-year-old woman Pamela Mastropietro, whose main suspect was the 29-year-old Nigerian man Innocent Oseghale.

ITALY. Milan, 10.2.2018.
Central Railway Station. A girl telling an episode of racism in a small town near Milan. She is attending the anti-fascist and anti-racism rally organized a week after the shootings of African immigrants by the 28-year-old Luca Traini, a man with right-wing sympathies and former candidate in local elections of the anti-immigrant party "Lega Nord" - Northern League-, in Macerata, a small town in Central Italy. Traini wanted to revenge the murder of the 18-year-old woman Pamela Mastropietro, whose main suspect was the 29-year-old Nigerian man Innocent Oseghale.

ITALY. Milan, 10.2.2018.
Central Railway Station. People at the end of the anti-fascist and anti-racism rally organized a week after the shootings of African immigrants by the 28-year-old Luca Traini, a man with right-wing sympathies and former candidate in local elections of the anti-immigrant party "Lega Nord" - Northern League-, in Macerata, a small town in Central Italy. Traini wanted to revenge the murder of the 18-year-old woman Pamela Mastropietro, whose main suspect was the 29-year-old Nigerian man Innocent Oseghale.